We are looking to recruit an experienced Senior Tax Manager to join our established Tax team, based in our Newbury office.

Clients will vary from individuals, partnerships to small and mid-size OMB's to larger corporate groups.

The role involves directly and indirectly managing client relationships. You will also be involved in mentoring and developing junior staff, contributing to the growth and development of the tax department, and working closely with partners on strategic matters.

The right individual will be academically diverse, nimble and technically broad based.

About you

You will be CTA qualified (or equivalent) with strong UK tax experience gained in professional practice. You should be technically confident, comfortable advising clients directly, and able to manage work autonomously while contributing positively to a collaborative team environment.

Experience with owner managed businesses and advisory led work is essential. Prior senior level exposure to mentoring staff and reviewing complex work is expected.
